The entire event will be in air conditioned comfort.

Please Note:

To encourage attendance by the general public, buyer's admission to the Flea Market is $5.00 for a one day pass. However, all EXTRAVAGANZA participants must register! The funds raised as a result of registration are a major source of revenue to help pay for the event. You must register to sell, be present at the Thursday set up, attend the "President's Reception" or attend any of the presentations. Please notice the family admission has not increased this year. Our ability to hold these rates depends on all attendees registering. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated. Therefore, register promptly to insure your preferred location.
